

WALLED GARDEN CP 2ND HIGHLAND GAMES

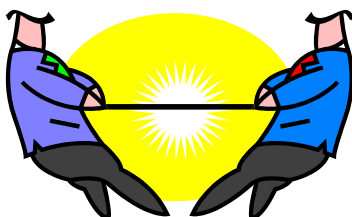

SATURDAY 7TH AUGUST 2010

For the last 8 years, the patrons and visitors of the Walled Garden CP help support the El Shaddai charity for the street children of India.

Last year we held our first Highland Games and it was a huge success, building on this we are holding our 2nd Highland games and we would like you to attend.

The format for the games will be The chieftain will be piped into the ground and the games formally opened. There will be fun races for the kids and adults alike, along with beat the goalie , a kids bouncy castle, splat the tatty, tossing the welly, and tossing the caber. There will be an all day BBQ , and a home baking stall . A tombola, and other stalls where you can spend your money to help the street children in India

We also intend to have a kids disco that will run between 5-7 pm allowing the adults to get themselves ready for the evenings entertainment. (Small additional fee will apply)
The evenings entertainment will consist of some traditional Scottish dancing and also a karaoke sing a long.
The cost of entry into the games will be £2.00 per adult (children free)

There will be races, tug-O-war, dancing, nature walks and a very relaxed atmosphere

El Shaddai Registered Charity Number is 1076768

To secure your place and book your pitch for this fun packed weekend please contact :-
James McCosh (Proprietor) 01655-740323,
Email :- info@walledgardencp.co.uk
Web site :- <http://www.walledgardencp.co.uk>